DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments, see Amendment, filed October 19, 2009, with respect to claims 1 and 21 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claims 1 and 21 has been withdrawn. Applicant amended the claim language to overcome the prior art of record.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-17 and 20-32 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding claims 1 and 21, the prior art of record fails to teach or suggest an optical device to produce a diffracted first image and a polarized second image comprising an encoded surface having a microrelief pattern with a grating direction, the pattern having a predetermined spatial distribution in which the orientation of the grating direction varies across at least part of the surface a solid anisotropic layer form of a polymerized liquid crystal material lying substantially parallel to the encoding surface and each axis being in respective alignment with the local grating direction of a corresponding adjacent part of the grating so that the orientation of the local optical axes of the polymerized liquid crystal material of the optically anisotropic layer varies across the encoding surface.

The examiner interprets the orientation to be the direction of the peaks of the diffractive grating. Tomono (US 2003/0067460) shows a display with a change in the diffractive grating orientation (Figs. 3-4 show a mirror image grating adjacent one another). However, the peaks of the gratings continue in a parallel fashion. The examiner interprets the claim language as requiring the peaks for non-parallel relationships at the orientation varying locations

Art Unit: 2872

The remaining claims depend from claims 1 and 21 and are allowed for the same reasons.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
